

Please oppose the CBA's attempts to exempt themselves from Indiana's telephone privacy law! Those of us who sign up for this do it for a reason. If we wanted to talk to an entity that we have an 'established business relationship' with, then we can call them. We do not need them calling us at will and interrupting our daily family lives.